October 2017 Standing Ground

At this time some stores are being removed from our website for many different reasons. We are also having trouble with tracking issues with some stores on regular monthly base and we may remove them, cause of the inconsistency. We intend to fill their vacancy with new stores. Some of our networks are no longer available to us, they have made their own business decision to go off line .
The barn that was currently inside the private parking lot at our location has been taken down. Clean up is still in progress Weather permitting clean up should be done by the week of October 2nd through the 8th. The parking lot has been raked and magnetized for nails.
The task of the off road private parking lot will be posted upon completion and the parking rules and regulation will still be enforced.

Reminder that October 5th is First day of Sukkot, October 9th, 2017 we have Columbus Day ( USA ), Thanksgiving day for ( Canada) and Halloween October 31st, 2017.
