Happy New Year 2019!

We have removed the old world news links and replaced with new ones throughout our website. If you click on the content inside the box you'll come to the header page that is listed on the top left side. At the top of the landing page you will see the word "Global" with up and down arrows click it it will then open up with links. The website Page navigator indicator has been relocated to bottom of all pages. Some of our promotional designs was currently removed from website and within the next few weeks we look to reactivate them soon with new links and landing pages. Please click on them, there will be new stores within banner.

We are still currently changing content and adding new stores, clientele and will be continuing to move forward, bring you on line choices, savings and worldwide shipping based on preferences throughout the new year.

Changes to the Verified Certified Mail banners has been revised on some pages, not all of them will be rotated out this time.
